

Curtain Call

Scripture: Revelation 1-5

Date: November 8, 2020

WONDER – Revelation 1

TEACHING

In the darkness of our pandemic world that is also filled with unrest – racially, politically, economically, socially etc. there is a need for a renewed (or brand new) vision of God's glory and grace in our world.

REFLECTIONS

What parts of your life are needing a new / fresh revelation from God?

WISDOM – Revelation 2/3

TEACHING

In the midst of the darkness and voids in our lives – God continues to be present and continues to reveal His promises and His power. He continues to connect and communicate with us by His Word of Scripture and the power of the Holy Spirit. He encourages and affirms the church through commendation and affirmation but also through condemnation and critique.

REFLECTIONS

What might God be saying to you to challenge you in your life and faith?

What might God say to you to encourage and affirm you in your life right now?

WORSHIP – Revelation 4/5

TEACHING

Life is mysterious and there is much that we don't know and much that we do know but can't understand. In the midst of the chaos and confusion of our broken and hurting world Jesus remains able and willing to guide us through the darkness into His light of life.

REFLECTIONS

What parts of Jesus – or being a Christian – are mysterious to you right now?

What parts of Jesus does your worship focus on?

Where might you be able to worship Jesus – outside of church services?
