

God's Love Goes Out – Sacred Moments

Date: June 21, 2020

Text: Acts 2: 42-47

CELEBRATING MILESTONES

TEACHING

As a culture we celebrate milestones – birthdays, anniversaries, graduations etc. As a church we celebrate them as well. We rejoice in these moments because we see and know them to be profound moments where the finding of faith in a deeper and richer way is celebrated.

REFLECTIONS

What are some of the milestones that you and your family / friends celebrate?

How do you celebrate those milestones?

What milestones have had to be adjusted / adapted due to Covid 19?

CELEBRATING GOD'S PRESENCE AND PRESENTS

TEACHING

We are challenged in Psalm 46: 10 to be still and know that God is. Truthfully we struggle with being still and we don't often let ourselves be stilled – even by God. A stillness that does away with the limitations of our life and faith and causes us to recognize God in our world. Not just a recognition OF God or ABOUT but rather an awareness of our covenantal recognition WITH God. Moments with God that become holy moments, sacred moments.

REFLECTIONS

Where in your world has the presence of God been tangible and real for you?

What was your response to that encounter?

What can you do to make yourself more open to more awareness / response to those holy / sacred moments?
