HUNGRY FOR ANSWERS

TEACHING

Epiphany is a season of the church of revelation and learning of God's light in our lives. Proverbs 16 shows us a teaching of God's call in our lives that not all of our plans will work out the way we want. Our world shows us the hangry that develops when we get anxious, angry about the failure of things to go our way. Things that we are missing, things that are happening the way we want. We are left wanting more – we are hungry.

What things in your life – or faith – are you missing right now?

What parts of your life – or faith – aren't working the way you had planned?

HUNGRY IN ACTION

TEACHING

Proverbs 16 reminds us that our plans are still governed by God's providence, power and presence. We are called to submit not just our plans to God but our very selves and God will establish the right words for us to speak and the right deeds to complete. God will establish the creation of our plans – and us – so that they will be strengthened and sustained for success. We are called – in commitment – to desire God more. In us – for us – through us to the world around us as our ultimate hunger is God.
